INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

The Dominican Republic Situation Report
(As of 8:30 PM, EST)

25X1

2. The contending forces in the Dominican Republic have been granted a brief breathing spell with last night's departure of six "constitutionalist" military, and the cancellation of the last day of the relatively unsuccessful general strike. There is still no indication that former rebel leader Francisco Caamano and his chief military aide, Manuel Montes Arache, are preparing to leave the country, and the regular military is adamant in refusing to consider its own departure until these two men have left.
